- 4) Reports
  - i) President (Claudia Zuanich) – Nothing to report
  - ii) Vice President (Natalie Campbell) – Nothing to report
  - iii) Superintendent (Molleen Barnes) – The Spelling Bee was a huge success. A big Thank You to Gabor Lakos.
What a wonderful Science Fair! Big shout out to Suzette.
The School has hired a website/database analyst, who will be looking at technology in the classroom, as well as training for upcoming CAASPP testing.
Thank you to Robin Replogle for helping organize Sunol's 1st History Bee team. A group of 5 Middle School students qualified for the regional competition, beating High School students! The group will go to Kentucky for the Nationals in May. SGUSD will pay for the registration fee, and History Bee team will do fundraisers. Mrs Barnes will donate her Time with Teachers' Principal for a Day proceeds to the History Bee Team.
Character Education Update - February's theme is Caring.
Thank you to Rebecca for waiting for the Music Room. It is finally ready! Several (band) students helped move things in!
CAASPP Testing will take place during May 11-29.
Kindergarten Roundup is at 6:30am on Thurs, Feb 12th in the Library.
3 year PE Grant was supported by Supervisor Scott Haggerty. The children are getting much more out of PE, both during their class sessions and snack/lunch recess times. In order for the grant to continue, we need letters (addressed to the School Board), that will be attached to resubmission for the grant. Also, thanks to the O'Leary's for disc golf!
  - iv) Secretary (Saraswathy L.) – Not present
  - v) Treasurer (Alyson Whitaker) – Transferred $3,300 to 6th Grade for Science Camp. $1,000 was already earned from the wreaths. This results in a $150 discount for each 6th Grader!
Science Fair awards were increased by $100 due to additional participation.
Refreshments for Sunol's Repertory Theater will be served on Friday March 13th. SRT also donates all their proceeds back to the school.

- vi) Volunteer Coordinator (Cheryl Thompson) – Star Volunteers who have completed 20+ volunteer hours in the month of January are Gabor Lakos, Jenny Huang, Katrina Figueira, Karina O'Leary, Madeline Agar, Melody Jensen, Moni Shah, Suzette Takei, Tonya Sharma, Vicki Brown and Virbin Randhawa
